Andhra Chicken Curry

A vibrant, home-style Andhra curry layered with curry leaves, warming spices and a delicious fiery finish.

Andhra · Non-Vegetarian

Medium

Preparation: 15 min

Cooking: 35 min

Total time: 50 min

Servings: 5

Ingredients

Chicken	625 g
Onion	2.5 medium
Tomato	2.5 medium
Ginger garlic paste	2.5 tbsp
Oil	3.75 tbsp
Red chilli powder	1.88 tsp
Turmeric	0.63 tsp
Coriander powder	2.5 tsp

Garam masala	1.25 tsp
Curry leaves	1.25 sprig
Salt	to taste
Water	0.63 cup

Cooking instructions

01 Get everything ready

Do not rinse raw chicken; pat dry with disposable towels, and chop onions and tomatoes. Wash hands and utensils after handling raw poultry. Keep spices measured and ready.

5 min

02 Build the base

Heat oil in a deep pan over medium heat. Add curry leaves and onions; sauté until golden and aromatic.

8 min

03 Add aromatics

Add ginger-garlic paste and cook for one minute. Stir in tomatoes and cook until soft and jammy.

6 min

04 Toast the spices

Add turmeric, red chilli powder, coriander powder, and salt. Stir for a minute, adding a splash of water if needed.

2 min

05 Simmer the chicken

Add chicken and mix to coat. Add water, cover, and simmer gently for about 18–22 minutes, stirring occasionally.

20 min

06 Finish and serve

Check chicken reaches a safe internal temperature of 74°C / 165°F. Stir in garam masala, taste for seasoning and serve with rice.

4 min

> ### Cooking tip
>
> For a milder version, reduce red chilli and finish with a spoon of yogurt.

RuchiMitra · Curated recipe. Photography: existing Recipe Finder image collection; see bundled IMAGE_SOURCES.md.